

4-H Clothing Evaluation, Skillathon, Construction Award Judging, and Style Review

Judging – Thursday, July 18, 2024

First United Methodist Church
201 W. High Avenue, New Philadelphia

Azalie Ajanel

Your project judging time is:
407 Accessories for Teens, 10:00 AM

Style Review and Awards - 7:00 PM

All 4-H'ers should arrive for judging approximately 15 minutes early to allow enough time to get changed into their outfit. Check-in at the registration table.

A fillable PDF of the Style Review commentary form can be found at <https://go.osu.edu/tusc4-hguidelines>. This completed form can be submitted via email or you may bring it with you and it will be collected at check-in. Please be sure it is neat and easy to read. Advisors, parents, or older 4-H'ers may be able to help complete the commentary form. The description on the back of your pattern envelope may also be useful to you. Be sure to include any special details of your outfit and briefly describe your accessories.

Participants will be interviewed by a judge based on their completed project book and the Seven Clues to a Total Look: Fit; Construction; Fashion & Design; Grooming; Posture and Poise; and Personable Qualities. Following Interview Judging members in construction emphasis projects will have their garment(s) judged separately for construction awards. Members also have the opportunity to participate in an optional sewing Skillathon; awards will be given to those receiving highest scores in junior and senior categories. Volunteers will be on-hand to assist members throughout the judging process.

Judges' Choice Awards will be selected in each category, and as many as 23 individuals may be selected to participate in the Ohio State Fair Fashion Review. See the State Fair 4-H Non-livestock Guidebook at <https://ohio4h.org/nonlivestockguidebook> for specific project date and time. All awards and state fair selections will be announced at the Style Review. Judging score sheets will be returned to members following the Style Review. To be eligible for Judges' Choice Awards and State Fair selection, members must participate in both judging and the style review.

All members participating in the Style Review will be asked to be dressed and ready to be lined up at 6:30 p.m. Style Review will begin at 7:00 p.m. The order for modeling will be different from the judging schedule and will be posted at the judging event. Advisors, parents, family, and friends are invited and encouraged to attend the Style Review to enjoy and appreciate the beautiful work done by 4-H'ers throughout the county. This event is a highlight of the 4-H year. We hope you'll take advantage of the opportunity and make it a learning experience.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH STATE FAIR ELIBILITY GUIDELINES, STYLE REVIEW PARTICIPANTS MUST BE CURRENTLY ENROLLED IN THE PROJECT IN WHICH THEY INTEND TO COMPETE.

Aubrey Grove

Your project judging time is:
415 Ready, Set, Sew Active!, 11:20 AM

Style Review and Awards - 7:00 PM

All 4-H'ers should arrive for judging approximately 15 minutes early to allow enough time to get changed into their outfit. Check-in at the registration table.

A fillable PDF of the Style Review commentary form can be found at <https://go.osu.edu/tusc4-guidelines>. This completed form can be submitted via email or you may bring it with you and it will be collected at check-in. Please be sure it is neat and easy to read. Advisors, parents, or older 4-H'ers may be able to help complete the commentary form. The description on the back of your pattern envelope may also be useful to you. Be sure to include any special details of your outfit and briefly describe your accessories.

Participants will be interviewed by a judge based on their completed project book and the Seven Clues to a Total Look: Fit; Construction; Fashion & Design; Grooming; Posture and Poise; and Personable Qualities. Following Interview Judging members in construction emphasis projects will have their garment(s) judged separately for construction awards. Members also have the opportunity to participate in an optional sewing Skillathon; awards will be given to those receiving highest scores in junior and senior categories. Volunteers will be on-hand to assist members throughout the judging process.

Judges' Choice Awards will be selected in each category, and as many as 23 individuals may be selected to participate in the Ohio State Fair Fashion Review. See the State Fair 4-H Non-livestock Guidebook at <https://ohio4h.org/nonlivestockguidebook> for specific project date and time. All awards and state fair selections will be announced at the Style Review. Judging score sheets will be returned to members following the Style Review. To be eligible for Judges' Choice Awards and State Fair selection, members must participate in both judging and the style review.

All members participating in the Style Review will be asked to be dressed and ready to be lined up at 6:30 p.m. Style Review will begin at 7:00 p.m. The order for modeling will be different from the judging schedule and will be posted at the judging event. Advisors, parents, family, and friends are invited and encouraged to attend the Style Review to enjoy and appreciate the beautiful work done by 4-H'ers throughout the county. This event is a highlight of the 4-H year. We hope you'll take advantage of the opportunity and make it a learning experience.
